AWARD

In this reference made by the Government to this Tribunal by its Order No. IRM/CON(143)/77/IT-25/77 dated 27th February, 1978, for adjudication of an Industrial dispute between the above parties. The schedule annexed to the Order of reference reads as follows:

"Whether the action of the management of M/s. Elesbao Pereira and Sons, Post Pox No. 106, Vasco-da-Gama, in terminating services of Shri Moses Almeida, Clerk with effect from 10-10-1970 is legal and justified?

If not, to what relief the workman is entitled to?"

2. In his statement of claim dated 22-5-1978, the workman has claimed full back wages from 10-10-1970, deduction of Provident Fund from his salary from May 1966 to October 1970, salary of August 1970 and October 1970, which were withheld by the Management without assigning any reason, transport expenses incurred during the period of his termination of services, medical expenses incurred during his unemployment period and finally reinstatement in services since the termination of his services, according to him, is illegal.

On 20-7-1978, the workman submitted another application computing all his dues in Rs. 2,774.91, as per the details shown in the said application.

Another application of the workman dated 18-7-1978 in respect of his claim is also on record.

3. In its written statement, the Company has stated that the workman was employed as a General Clerk w.e.f. 1-4-1964. Due to the loss of business, the Management found the staff surplus and, as such, the services of the workman were retrenched by giving him notice on 10-10-1970 and he was directed to collect all his legal dues on expiry of the notice period. This notice was received by the workman on 15-10-1970, but he remained absent and did not come to the Company's office to collect his pay and retrenchment compensation. Two letters were sent to the workman on 4-1-1977 and 21-4-1977 calling on him to collect his legal dues, but he did not turn up, nor did he raise any dispute till 12-12-1976. On 13-12-1976, the workman addressed a letter to the Labour Commissioner. Conciliation Proceedings were taken up before this Officer but no settlement could be arrived at. The workman disagreed on some points and refused to accept his dues and the conciliation ended in failure. The Government then referred the matter to this Tribunal. The employers raised an objection that this reference is bad in law and not maintainable as the Government did not apply its mind to the fact that the workman had applied after a lapse of about 6 years for the payment of his legal dues and as late as 13-12-1976; that the letter dated 13-12-1976 makes it clear by implication that there was no dispute between the employer and workman in regard to workman's reinstatement as late as 13-12-1976; that once the workman demands the settlement of his legal dues, the demand for reinstatement either prior to the demand of legal dues or made after cannot survive in law.

On merits, it is alleged, in short, that there is a typographical mistake in the letter dated 10-10-1970, in mentioning 10-10-70 in the last line of para 1 instead of 10-11-1970, which can be easily implied from the 2nd para of the said letter. When the notice was served, the workman was absent from office and, as such, the notice was sent to the workman by registered A/D. Hence, it is denied that the workman is entitled to full back wages from 10-10-1970. Regarding Provident Fund, the scheme introduced by the Company was of equal contribution of the workman and of the Company, deposited in bank in Jt. Account of both and also to be operated by both. On 17-3-1976, the workman was paid Rs. 683.27, by withdrawing from his account in The Bank of India, Vasco and the workman has issued a stamped receipt for the same. Hence, the claim for Provident Fund is denied. Regarding his claim for salary, he was directed to attend the office to collect his dues, which he did not do. His salary for August, September and October upto 5th is due and the Company is willing to pay, but the workman is not entitled to any salary after 5th October, as he did not attend the office till 9-11-1970. It is denied that the workman is entitled to any Medical expenses or travelling allowances. The workman accepted the retrenchment notice on 15-10-1970 and did not attend the office to collect earned wages and retrenchment compensation.

4. In his rejoinder, the workman maintains the stand earlier taken by him and insists that the termination is illegal and that, therefore, he should be reinstated and paid of all his dues, which the employer has not paid, inspite of having called the workman several times in the Office.

5. Following issues were framed by the Tribunal:

- "1. Do the Employers/Party II prove that the reference is bad in law and not maintainable?
2. Do the Employers/Party II prove that the claim of the Workman/Party I for reinstatement with full back wages and continuity of service is belated and barred by estoppel?
3. Do the Employers/Party II prove that the termination of the services of the Workman/Party I is legal and justified?
4. Does the Workman/Party I prove that the termination of his services is illegal and he is entitled to claim in this Reference amount referred to in the Statement of Claim dated 22-5-1978?

First two issues will be treated as Preliminary Issues".

6. Evidence was led by both the parties and, after hearing the arguments advanced by the employer's rep, only, since the workman remained absent, the matter was kept for Award.

7. Various efforts were made by the Court to bring the parties to an amicable settlement, which, finally, was arrived at and the matter was compromised by a settlement today signed before the Tribunal by the workman in person and by the Ld. Rep. of the employer.

8. The settlement terms read as follows:

"a) The Employer, Party II, M/s. Elisbao Pereira and Sons will pay a sum of Rs. 15,000/- (Rupees fifteen thousand only) to the Party I, Shri Moses Almeida as full and final payment towards claims arising out of his employment with them and also of present reference before the Hon. Tribunal.

b) The Workman, Shri Moses Almeida in consideration of the employer's willingness to pay the aforesaid amount states that he has no other claims what so ever against the employer, M/s. Elisbao Pereira and Sons in respect of his employment with them and also on all the matters covered by the present reference before the Hon. Tribunal.

c) The dispute on all the matters before the Hon. Tribunal are settled in terms of paragraphs (a) & (b) above.

The parties therefore pray that the Hon. Tribunal may be pleased to pass award in terms mentioned above."

9. The above settlement is fair to both the parties and, hence, I accept it and pass the following order:

ORDER

Consent Award in terms of the above settlement is hereby made and the matter is disposed off, with no order as to costs.
